

DAY 1 : Pisa- Lucca - Montecatini

In the morning departure for Pisa and guided tour of the city: the Piazza dei Miracoli or Piazza del Duomo with the famous Leaning Tower, the Cathedral of Santa Maria Maggiore, the Baptistery, the Camposanto and the Piazza dei Cavalieri. Piazza dei Miracoli is registered in the UNESCO World Heritage Site. At the end of the visit to Pisa we will head towards the splendid city of Lucca, completely surrounded by the ancient medieval walls. Here it will be possible to make a wine tasting and lunch, based on typical regional products, in a characteristic restaurant located in the heart of the city, immersed in a fantastic medieval atmosphere. After the stop it will be possible to visit Lucca, its characteristic monuments, the squares, the streets still cloaked in history, and its towers among which the Torre del Guinigi stands out, the only one to host on its top a garden with a large holm oak tree. On the way back, we will visit a famous roasting located in Vinci, the birthplace of Maestro Leonardo, where you will be able to taste and discover the production processes of the "Espresso Italiano" coffee, undoubtedly the best in the world. Dinner and overnight in Montecatini or Florence
