TRAINING ITINERARY

Transurfing is a constantly evolving discipline. This program is therefore a shared general itinerary model that can be enriched and / or modified over time. Each Coach and Center will follow the Program based on the texts by Vadim Zeland that he has available and which have been published in his own country language.

All courses take place both online and in interactive mode and in intensive courses (internships or summer schools).

The training is annual and divided into three steps. The steps usually take place over two semesters. However, on the basis of the programs of the individual centers, it will be possible to provide for the courses to be carried out according to different scans, as well as the number of weekly lessons and their distribution are determined in relation to the functionality needs of the individual training centers.
