

Key Speaker: Melissa Hudson Russell

Melissa Russell is Caterpillar's Market Access Director for Remanufacturing. She manages global market access for the complete Remanufacturing product portfolio. Melissa joined Caterpillar as a Government Affairs Manager in the Global Governance and Corporate Affairs Division in 2015, and has covered Europe, Eurasia, Africa, the Middle East, as well as energy, mining, and immigration.

Prior to joining the private sector, Melissa spent 20 years as a U.S. diplomat, specializing in the Former Soviet Union, the Middle East and Eastern Europe.

Melissa holds master's degrees in political science from the University of Texas and in strategic studies from the National War College. Melissa speaks several foreign languages.

