

Key Speaker: Dr. Andreas Wenda

Short CV: professional start as a technician (machine and plant fitter); study of mechanical engineering with focus on manufacturing technologies at Technical University of Braunschweig with abroad studies in France and Norway; Ph.D. studies with focus on microsystem technology at TU Braunschweig; joined Bosch in 2002; different tasks and positions; the last 11 years director of an engineering department within Bosch Automotive Aftermarket.

Main research and industrial topics: 10 years of experience in automotive electronics series development and production, 11 years of experience in service of automotive electronics with main focus on all technical topics and circular economy.

BOSCH

