Departure on foot for the centre of Roccaraso, an easy and pleasant walk

Founded around the 10th century as an agricultural village, inhabited mostly by shepherds and artisans, Roccaraso is today a very popular destination that attracts tourists from all over the world, thanks to the numerous ski facilities, the wonderful landscapes, the clean air and the many different sports that can be practised here all year round. The small but pretty town centre has a special charm, with its Baroque churches and buildings. Walking through the town centre you will find all kinds of shops, including arts and crafts and local culinary specialties.

Visit of an artisan shop and tasting of typical local truffle-flavoured produce.

Fresh truffles are some of the most famous local delicacies. Truffles grow wild and plentiful in the area around Roccaraso, the upper valley of the Sangro river between the Abruzzo and Molise regions. Once picked, truffles are processed without the use of dyes or preservatives to create spreads, liqueurs, beers and other flavoured products, including cheeses, ricotta, dried sausages, honey, etc.

Departure by private transfer for Pescocostanzo, one of the most beautiful borghi of Italy (altitude: 1395 m)

We will meet our local guide and visit this medieval town boasting an exceptional array of Renaissance and Baroque buildings, testament to the extraordinary artistic and cultural development that the town underwent especially between 1440 and 1700. We will also visit the Basilica of Santa Maria del Colle, an example of Romanesque-Renaissance architecture and one of the most interesting churches in Abruzzo. The variety of shapes, furnishings, materials, and structures that characterise this building make it a veritable museum, full of works of art.

Lunch with a typical menu in a restaurant in the town

In the early afternoon, our guide will take us to the many arts and crafts shops of Pescocostanzo, leading us through a real journey of discovery of ancient crafts.

The processing of bobbin lace, filigree and wrought iron represent the local artisan tradition handed down from generation to generation in an effort to safeguard a wealth of experience, technical ability, style and quality.

(*) ...what is Borgo...

A "Borgo" ("Borghi" in the plural) is a fascinating small Italian town, generally fortified and dating back to the period from the Middle Ages to the Renaissance. It is unique and built around a castle or palace belonging to the noble family that held power at that time and it is often surrounded by walls. In Italy we have around 310 Borghi from the Dolomites to Sicily and they are the symbol of the Italian culture with artistic and architectural heritage, tradition and food and wine treasures.
