

Key Speaker: Luca Gentilini

Short CV: research and development engineer in Haiki Cobat. Project manager of several EU funded research projects. Former research fellow at Politecnico di Milano.

Main research and industrial topics: Haiki Cobat works in the circular economy value chains of several products as batteries, WEEE, tyres, EoL vehicles, textile, composites. In this context, the R&D unit is horizontally involved in the investigation of the most promising solutions for the improvement of the industrial state of the art, covering topics as development of new recycling and remanufacturing processes, digitalization and traceability, cross-sectorial solutions for waste recovery, policy making.

