

Key Speaker: Erik Sundin

Short CV: Dr. Erik Sundin is currently working as a full Professor in the area of Sustainable Manufacturing with focus on remanufacturing at Linköping University, Sweden. Besides research and education, he also participate in the development of new circular product standards e.g. ISO14006, IEC62430 and EN45553 mainly with a remanufacturing focus. Currently he is also acting the editor-in-chief for Journal of Remanufacturing (Springer).

Main research and industrial topics: Most of Erik's research has been focusing on remanufacturing but other areas are also sustainable manufacturing and product service systems. Erik has worked within several national and international research projects e.g. the EU projects called CAN-Reman, ERN, L4IDS, CarE-Service, CIRC€UIT and SCANDERE. Web: <https://liu.se/en/employee/erisu71>.

