WHO WE ARE

Cosmo Food is born from the increasing need for a local reference for Italian producers and international supermarket chains, distributors and importers.

Our team works everyday building connection between foreign companies in search of made in Italy quality and local producers. Our main goal is to preserve and protect Italian food tradition, without losing focus on foreign markets and their dynamics.

IMPORTANT

Important as we work with many private labels , most of the products are out of our catalog, so for particular and innovative requests, we ask you to send a request via email with an updated brief
