

Key Speaker: Mr Markus Wagner

Short CV: Markus Wagner has a degree in Industrial Engineering and Management from University of Karlsruhe. He looks back to more than 20 years of experience in different positions in logistics, IT and marketing in the international automotive industry. Since 15 years, he is developing business-processes and IT-systems for industrial remanufacturing and used-parts management. In his current assignment, Markus leads and contributes to international research projects innovating on implementation of circular economy business models. With this background, he also consults companies on implementing circular business-models and contributes to standardization in ISO and DIN.

Main research and industrial topics:

- Innovating and consulting on implementation of circular economy business- models
- Leading and contributing to public-funded projects on EU- and national-level

