

THE WAVE OF LUCK

What steps?

To embody Transurfing in order to pass it on...

The Wave of Success is an accumulation of favourable life lines in the space of variants. It manifests itself in a succession of advantageous events in your life.

There are 7 steps to finding it so that you can stay on it. At each stage, there are states to be favoured in order to be able to continue surfing for as long as you intend.

In my talk I will show you what the 7 stages are and how the goal of transmitting Transurfing by embodying it can manifest in reality.

STEP 1

THE DESIRE, THE GOAL OF THE SOUL, OF THE HEART

In step 1, it is the DESIRE of the soul, the heart, the deep aspirations, the callings - for you are called to, do you know that? - it is the ascending principle of the human soul, the movement, the desire to experience.

It is what is deeply embedded in you, what defines you, what characterises you, the very meaning and purpose, the goals of your existence here on earth.

At this initial stage, I will therefore start with your desire to influence, to spread well-being for yourself, but also, by resonance, for others around you. You have, at this point, to encourage states of inspiration, love, surprise, self-permission to receive, to obtain, which allow you to define this call, this desire.

STEP 2

MAKE A CHOICE / TAKE A DECISION

In step 2, it is the CHOICE. Your feelings will help you to make a choice, in front of yourself (with your mind, your spirit, your reason, whatever you want to call it), in front of all kinds of balances (professional, family), etc. It is the moment to be in states of acceptance and to cultivate vagueness, voluntary uncertainty, calm, balance, because the reason, the spirit seeks to know and no longer listens to the soul, the heart. It is necessary to let go of control in order to listen to feeling, to intuition. Several options can be offered to you such as doing a physical activity to maintain your well-being, listening to conferences to increase your knowledge, watching documentaries to observe other ways of seeing reality ... or simply stumbling upon one of the Transurfing books that strongly appeals to you through your feeling.

THE SIGNS

This is stage 3, it is the stage of SIGNS. Don't look for them, they come to you and intrigue you, make you think, make connections ... it's in these moments that receptivity, attention, permission allow you to hear on a bus a person talking about a Russian physicist who wrote a book about the possibility of being able to manage your reality, It is a friend who comes to you and tells you that his or her life has literally changed since reading a book on personal development, and it is at this moment that you come across a flyer, an advertisement that tells you that a conference on a model of individual realisation will take place in your town, or on the internet, like today.

STEP 4

THE INTENTION

In step 4, it is INTENTION that acts, it is the determination to act and to receive, it is the setting up of your physical and psychic force, your internal intention, the one that makes you take a step forward, that moves the physical energy of this world, of your reality. You act in matter and your states (Resolution - Decision - Firmness) determine your intention. You take this flyer and plan to go to this conference or to register on the website to get an access code to a remote meeting on the internet.

STEP 5

THE EXPERIENCE

Here you are at step 5, that's it, you are there, you are living the EXPERIENCE. You are going into the unknown, into discovery. You have your ticket for the conference, you have called the old lady and a nice person has explained everything to you. Or you are in front of your computer and the system has just invited you to enter the virtual room. Everything works, you are welcomed and heard, you hear the speaker perfectly. You start to apply the advice of the facilitator/instructor with attention, assiduity, curiosity, interest. You completely accept the game of the situation and you train yourself in Transurfing by participating in all the proposed workshops; this changes your reality and a new life line begins.

STEP 6

REPLACING THE BASES

This is step 6, it's the installation of the new foundations. You don't have the new habits yet, but you are working on them... it's like a baby that wants to walk... it keeps falling down and getting up again... You have read the Transurfing books, you have been working on them ever since. You put into practice the principles, the concepts you learned in the sessions/workshops, you are in the acceptance of uncertainty, the playfulness, the lightness, you are playful and full of energy in your reality. However, sometimes your friends and family no longer understand your way of seeing events, your way of speaking, of eating. They question you and invite you, or even force you, to stop reading those books, which propose to work on your self-development, and which they consider to be of little interest: Are you floundering? Do you follow your friends, it's only for once, after all ... ? or do you continue anyway?

It is at this stage that you find yourself weakened in the face of the pendulums that can catch up with you through your entourage, you can become a puppet again, a puppet of the pendulums. Hold on and don't let go, what a pleasure it is to go towards the person you are...

STEP 7

THE REALIZATION

Finally we come to step 7, THE REALIZATION. It is the manifestation of the external intention that triggers its effects (synchronicity, facilities...). You have reached your goal, in states of detachment where satisfaction, joy and gratitude are present, you have lived this life line rich in practice and teaching and here you are, embodying the Transurfing model, ready to pass it on, if you have not already done so. By remaining grateful and lowering your internal importance, you make your life a celebration and ride your wave of success...

THE WAVE OF LUCK

During the whole process of the 7 steps, the OBSERVER is always present.

The wave of success is a golden vein for you in the space of variants. It brings you happiness without taking anything from your energy, like a wave from the ocean that brings an exhausted swimmer back to shore.

The wave of success transfers you to a happy life line. You are the one who moves from one life line to another, and for you then, this 'vein' appears, similar to a wave, because you either slip into it and let it come into your life, or you move away from it, carried away by the swings.

As soon as you find such a vein of good fortune, you can automatically slip into other lines of accumulated success, on which new favourable circumstances await you.

You do not have to make any effort to ride this wave. It is only a matter of choice:

If you welcome the wave into your life, it comes with you.

If you are under the influence of a destructive pendulum and soak up its negative energy, then you leave the wave of success.

Don't think about what you couldn't get; think about what you want to get, and you will.

Instead of accepting the destructive pendulum, make it a habit to pay attention to all that is good, beautiful, right and positive.

Learn to remember that when something bad happens, it is a pendulum trying to catch you. As soon as you remember this, you are able to make a conscious choice: either you give it your energy by spreading all your negative emotions, or you leave it empty-handed and win.

If you remember, failure or stopping a swing will always be easy.

Use this method with great persistence and determination and the new habit will then replace the old one. The next time you encounter the wave of success, no pendulum will be able to pull you away from it.

If you are grateful for what you have now, if you feel love for all the things around you that make your life easier, then you are giving positive energy.

In these moments you are giving positive vibrations to the world around you, and these vibrations will inevitably come back to you, sooner or later.

With every minute you spend on happiness, you consciously move closer to your dreams, you control your own destiny.

Bring all that is positive into your life and soon you will receive more and more good news and opportunities.

Recognise and nurture all positive changes. These are the precursors to the wave of success.

To attract it, you will have distributed positive energy all around you. In doing so, you will not only be a receiver of positive energy but also a transmitter.

Then the world around you will quickly change for the better. You will be able to glide with ease along more and more successful life lines

Take pleasure in everything good that happens in your world and it will turn into pure heaven.
